THE VILLAGES

These villages, in spite of being within a 10 Km radius, can split up into two groups: Medrano, Entrena and Sorzano are in the foothills of the “Moncalvillo Range”, on the western bank of the Iregua River. Nalda and Viguera are located near the river, on the right bank.

The number of inhabitants is roughly the following:

Entrena: 1,100 inhabitants, Medrano: 230, Nalda: 770, Sorzano: 250 and Viguera: 390

The economy of the villages is based on farming: cereals, vines and cattle. There are some important companies dedicated to fruit and vegetable processing.

This is a solid middle class conservative area. There is an increasing interest in cultural activities and associations, which are working
